A Message from the President:

The May meeting was a tour of the renovated Union County Court House. Commissioner Glen Irwin was our host. It is a very impressive improvement. The June meeting will be the annual picnic and church history. This year we are going to Richwood, OH. to the Community United Calvary Church on E. Ottawa St. We plan to eat at the park at Richwood at 6 PM, then go to the church. Our July meeting is our field trip! We plan to go to Mansfield O.G.S. Library. Meet at K-Mart on N. Main St., Marysville at 8:00 A.M. to carpool. We will brown bag it for lunch. We are making plans to furnish volunteers to be at the county offices archives room. If interested let us know. August meeting will be back at the Library at Marysville at regular time. Speaker is to be Marge Waterfield. Her subject will be "Do you Have a Bad Case of Genealogy Block? Ten Ways to Overcome It."

The Union County Historical Society has about 60 years worth of obituaries-1903-1960. Virginia Jewel, Arlene Perkins and Margaret Markley are assembling these in binders for the Historical Society library, copying and making ready for our 3 x 5 files in the Marysville Library. This is a time-consuming task, but a great genealogical addition to both libraries.

The Union County Historical Society museum and library have opened for the summer, each Thursday afternoon from 1:00-4:00 P.M.

If you have not sent your 1994 dues to the chapter, the April 1994 issue of Union Echoes is the last which you will receive. Please check your label, which will tell if you have paid for 1994.

Secretary's report:

Anyone who missed the March 15 meeting missed Mary Bowman's pointers on "Using Newspapers for Genealogical Research." Finding these old newspapers is often difficult and the bound copies fragile to handle, but if you are lucky, they have been microfilmed.

It is important to scan everything in the paper because obituaries were printed on any page, or society columns might contain clues. Persistence and speedy skimming help, and the items may be printed weeks after the events. Mrs. Bowman reported that often, in Southern papers, important family connections may be printed in the society columns, as families gathered for ceremonies and family events.

These old newspapers were started up, and often died out, wherever people settled in numbers, and gave the only contemporary records of early life on the edge of the moving frontiers. The speaker suggested looking at papers in the area where the people came from, and if nothing is found, look at papers where they died, as some of the family often remained there.

Even if there were several papers in the area, it was recommended to look in all of them, as the coverage was influenced by politics, religion, or some bias of the editor of the time. One other bit of advice by this reviewer; keep a prominent note of what the purpose of your particular search purpose was. It is easy to be detoured by other interesting items in these old papers.

Tamara Lowe, Union County Treasurer, told us about the work of her office at the April 19 meeting. It is clear the work load has changed and increased a great deal since Richard Gabriel was the first Treasurer in 1823.

The earliest handwritten records for the 1840's are stored in the new Archives space in the lower level of the County Offices Building on Sixth Street. It is unknown why the records are missing for the Civil War years.

Everything in the Treasurer's office is now on computers, which makes it easier to handle the increased workload, as the number of parcels increases every time a farm or two are divided into many building lots for homes. Thousands of parcels are tax exempt, she stated, because of their status as schools, churches, etc.

This office is one more place to look up some more details of the daily life of your ancestors. They did not have income taxes long ago, but they did have property taxes.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stone of Yukon, OK. sent the following note with their dues: "We thoroughly enjoy each issue of Union Echoes. Your publication is well written and contains much genealogical information. We feel that we are acquainted with many of you." Thank you for your kind words, and your coordinator thanks all contributors for the information that keeps our Echoes interesting.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF MILFORD CENTER, OHIO

The first religious organization in what is now Union Township, was formed by the Presbyterians, one and one-half miles east of the present village of Milford Center, either late in 1807 or very early in 1808. It was called Upper Liberty, and was organized out of a portion of the materials from a former church which had been formed at North Liberty, in what is now Darby Township, in the fall of 1800. The formation of the church at Upper Liberty occurred at the house of Samuel Reed 1st, a committee having been sent for the purpose by the Presbytery; said committee was composed of Rev. James Hoge, D. D., and one of his Elders. Mr. Hoge was made pastor of the church at Franklinton (now Columbus), Ohio, having been installed June 11, 1808. The original members were twenty in number, as follows: David and Martha Mitchell, Samuel Mitchell, Sr., and wife, Samuel and Jane Kirkpatrick Samuel Reed, 2nd, and Anna, his wife, David and Elizabeth Carey, Robert and Jane Snodgrass, Samuel Reed 1st, and Elizabeth, his wife, William and Catharine Gabriel, David and Margaret Reed, and the aged and widowed mothers of Samuel Reed, 1st and 2nd. Samuel Reed 1st and Samuel Kirkpatrick were elected Elders, and inducted into office.

Rev. Samuel Woods was installed pastor June 15, 1808, and remained in that connection till his death, April 17, 1815, in the thirty-sixth year of his age. He was born in Cumberland County, Penn., January 15, 1779, and was a graduate of Dickinson College, at Carlisle, Penn. In 1809, this society erected a rude log church, twenty-four feet square, which stood at the site mentioned, between the road and the old burying ground. About 1822-23, an addition eighteen feet wide was built on one side of the old church, and the building as thus enlarged was used until 1834, when a brick church was erected at Milford Center, and the congregation removed to that place. The brick church was 44 x 50 feet in dimensions, and cost about $1,500. It was occupied until the fall of 1869, when the society obtained the use, for one-half the time, of the Methodist Episcopal Church building at Milford Center. This arrangement continued for eighteen months, during which time the old building was torn down, the ground cleared off and the foundation laid for the present commodious building. The new structure was dedicated, free from debt, March 26, 1871, the pastor, Rev. William G. March, being assisted in the dedicatory sermon. The building cost about $4,500.

April 8, 1838, after its removal from the old location, the name of the church was changed from Upper Liberty to Milford Center. When it was first organized, it was a part of the Presbytery of Washington, Ky., which included all that part of Ohio west of the Scioto River. It afterward belonged to Columbus Presbytery, and was made a part of Marion Presbytery in 1835, when the latter was constituted. Its pastors have been as follows: Rev. Samuel Woods, 1808 to 1815. Revs. William Dickey, Archibald Steele, James Hoge, D. D., Elder Hughes, and some others, occasionally supplied this church until 1821, in which year Rev. James Robinson, "the ancestor and kindred of a large tribe of Presbyterian Robinsons," was installed pastor, continuing in that relation until the fall meeting of the Columbus Presbytery, in 1828. He was a native of Washington County, Penn., a graduate of Jefferson College, and was ordained in 1808-1809. He removed to Ohio in 1808, and was one of the original members of Lancaster Presbytery, preaching the opening sermon on the day it was constituted in Lancaster, April 22, 1847. His successor at Upper Liberty was Rev. Darius C. Allen, who came as a missionary to Madison and Union Counties in 1829, and served as stated supply of this church until the spring of 1831, when he removed to London, Madison County, and became pastor of the church at that place.

MARYSVILLE REPUBLICAN AND RICHWOOD GAZETTE, July 21, 1909

Ben James of Delaware, a former citizen of the "Cotton Slash" neighborhood, in Taylor Township, was in Marysville Thursday and paid a visit to the latter place, which he had not seen for eighteen years.

The late Solomon James and his family, including Ben James, who arrived from North Carolina in 1855 and settled in Taylor Township long before the Cotton Slash was settled by the colored people from North Carolina, whose presence caused the neighborhood to get its peculiar name.

The Cotton Slash at one time had a colored school separate from the white school and a teacher of their own race, but these days have long passed into history and there is not now a colored family living in the neighborhood. Many of them came to Marysville and their descendants drifted to other places. Among the prominent families that are recalled at this time were the Chavous, Tabern, Evans, James and Richeson. SPAIN HISTORY

As presented to Union County Chapter, O. G. S., by G. Elaine (Spain) Chapman.

Source:History of North Lewisburg, Ohio 1826-1976, Published for North Lewisburg Sesquicentennial by Committee, 1976.

(As understood by author, two main groups came from Dinwiddie Co., Virginia. The first was Hezekiah Spain and his group. The second, William Spain, who eventually settled in Union County.)

FIRST PERMANENT SETTLERS

According to Middleton's Champaign County History, the Spain

Family has been credited as probably the first permanent settlers, in this area. Hezekiah Spain, coming from Dinwiddie County, Virginia, came to this area in 1805, the year that Champaign County was organized. There were approximately nine other families from Dinwiddie County who located here. They were J. P. Spain, Stephen Spain, Jordon (or Gordon) Reames, Hubbard Crowder, William Spain, Daniel Spain, John P. Spain, Jr., Thomas Spain and John Crowder. Hezekiah Spain bought the entire survey No. 4666, original patent holder, of one thousand and sixty-three acres, recorded on Feb. 6, 1806, for which he paid $2.00 per acre. The later group came from the New England states. (It later named persons other than the above mentioned.)

PIONEER LIFE

In the year 1805, there were ninety-one emigrants in all, who came to settle one mile west of North Lewisburg. According to an account written by Willis Spain, who was Hezekiah Spain's son, he made the move to Ohio when he was nine year old. He writes, "Onward we came over hill and dale, over mountains and rivers, for seven long weeks. Every night, where we could find water, we pitched our tents for the night, built fires, got supper, fed the horses, and went to bed. In the morning we got breakfast, geared up and moved forward until noon, then built fires, got dinner, fed the horses, hitched up and moved forward till night again. And soon from day to day until we passed rivers and mountains, where we would have to double-team to climb the mountains, and the Allegheny and Yellow Hills, and many dangers in the way, until we drove into an unbroken forest and pitched our tents. No house within four miles, no mills, no store short of twenty-eight miles. Winter close at hand: no hay, no corn, and no fodder.

Our neighbors were the Mingo and Shawnees, and prairies (?), the wolves and the panthers. We began to build cabins to prepare for winter; round logs for the body, split logs for the floor, clapboards and poles for the roof.

By rambling through the woods eight or ten miles, we found corn, but no meal. We would boil corn and make hominy, then we had meat to eat with our bread and hominy. Sometimes a fat opossum and fat turkey. We would feast fine then, indeed.

Through the winter we cut down small timber to clear for corn in the spring. By June we had ten acres ready for the plow. By the fifteenth of June, we had it all planted. It did well, but the squirrels and birds wanted a large share of the crop of corn, and the mosquitoes seem to think we had trespassed on their rights and fought bravely, but we kept the field and raised a good crop of corn. The horses had plenty of graze in the woods. As soon as the corn would do to grind, we shelled a load and started to Springfield to mill, and it took a week to get it home. With hominy, it would last through the winter; so with our efforts we made farmers and killed game.

EARLY MILITIA - 1805

The early activities of militia started with an act of Congress in 1792 for all able bodied citizens between the ages of 18-45, to enroll in a militia company, also they should arm themselves and appear for regular drill and annual musters. These were the days when the Indians were everywhere west of the Alleghenies.

The settlers built blockhouses for their protection. There were at least a half dozen blockhouses erected at various sites in Champaign County prior to the War of 1812. One of these was built one mile west of North Lewisburg, on the present site of the new part of Maple Grove Cemetery. It was built on the highest point of land. As far as is known, there was not a white man killed by an Indian within the boundary limits of Champaign County.

(Note: Maple Grove Cemetery is often called Spain Cemetery, or North Lewisburg Cemetery. It is on Gilbert Road. The front section on the right side is almost entirely very old stones with name of Spain on them. This is located in Rush Township in Champaign County. Spain Creek is nearby. G. Elaine Chapman)

I am starting family group sheets to sort out the Spain families. Mr great grandfather Enoch Spain is buried in Maple Grove Cemetery. Originally he was buried in Buck Run Cemetery, Union County. Buck Run Creek flooded that cemetery and Enoch was moved to "Spain Cemetery." His father William Spain is buried in Broderick Cemetery (War of 1812.) Both of these, Buck Run Cemetery and Broderick Cemetery are old cemeteries located on route 245 between route 33 and North Lewisburg.

Second group of Spains, William, settled in Allen Township, Union County. after briefly being in Champaign County. Left Dinwiddie County, Virginia in 1820. The following is taken from "Family Heritage, Union County, Ohio 1986." It is in our Marysville Public Library Genealogy Section. This article's author is Shirley (Spain) Garrison. Page 131, entitled
"THE SPAIN FAMILY"

Eight went to war, but five never returned. The picture (a photo of the Spain brothers) is a good likeness of three brothers, whose ages will equal 237 years. Beginning at the left of the picture is John Spain, aged 74; Enoch Spain, aged 78, and Philander Spain, aged 85. (To be continued)
